

Iskandar Malaysia’s economy is currently driven by manufacturing and services

Cluster with its inter-industry linkages to metal fabrications, petrochemical and food manufacturing dominates manufacturing. The services cluster is dominated by logistic and tourism. Some service industries are emerging and require greater strengthening. They include private healthcare and education services, creative and financial services.

KEY ECONOMIC INDICATORS
THE MAIN PILLARS (Promoted Economic Clusters)	AI & Electronics	Petro Chemical & Oil & gas	Agro Processing
Employment	71,500	35,446	13,323
Value added (RM billion)	4.5	2.8	1.0
Strengths	Strong Linkage to Singapore	Designated petrochemical hub	Oleo chemical hub
		Presence of Pengerang & Singapore	Potential as Halal Hub

KEY ECONOMIC INDICATORS
THE MAIN PILLARS (Promoted Economic Clusters)	Logistic & Related Services	Tourism	Health Services	Educational Services	Creative Industries	Financial Services
Employment	19,656	43, 362*	6,170	914	536	19,500
Value added (RM billion)	2.0	1.1*	0.3	0.07	0.05	Na
Strengths	Located along world's busiest trade route	Diverse Products	Proximity to a large ASEAN market	Strong Industrial Baser	Presence of Pinewood Studio	Strong national level Islamic banking exposure
	Strong Industrial Baser	Singapore as hinterland	Linkage to tourism, quality of life	Linkage to tourism & rapidly growing services sectors	Strong heritae in culture & arts in local communications	